

Tutor: En Route Course Leader and College Lecturer

All Nations Christian College is world renowned for effective cross-cultural training for Christian missional life and work, both locally and globally.

We are looking for a qualified lecturer to take overall responsibility for all aspects of our 10 - week missions training En Route course at the Easneye site, teach on all other programmes offered by All Nations Christian College according to their area of expertise, and provide support and pastoral care to students. The successful candidate will have recent, extensive and relevant experience in cross-cultural mission and teaching experience in an academic context, together with pastoral skills.

This role is for a Tutor to be resident on site (accommodation and meals are provided free of charge); or the role could suit a Volunteer to travel on site (travel expenses covered).

In the nature of the role, it is a genuine requirement that the post holder is a committed Christian and fully supports the objectives of the college.

Working Conditions

Residential: (accommodation & meals free of charge) or Volunteer

Located: Easneye, Ware, Hertfordshire

Hours of work: full time / part time

Start: July / August 2024

Job Description

For more information, please read the full Job Description.

How to Apply

To apply, please send a completed application form and updated CV to the HR Manager, Ann Voortman, at hr@allnations.ac.uk (Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis)

All Nations Christian College is committed to safeguarding children and adults at risk, from abuse and neglect. We expect all staff who work with us to share this commitment. Staff may be required to be checked with the Disclosure & Barring Service (DBS).

All applicants must have the right to work in the UK.