2 INTRODUCTION

- 2.1 All Nations Christian College recognises that freedom of speech and expression within the law has fundamental importance within the Higher Education sector. Whilst All Nations is not obliged under Section 43 of the Education (No. 2) Act 1986 to take measures to protect freedom of lawful speech and expression, it recognises the importance of doing so.
- 2.2 All Nations Christian College also recognises the need, although not obligated to do so, to have regard to the need to ensure that academic staff members have freedom within the law to question and test received wisdom, and to put forward new ideas and controversial or unpopular opinions without placing themselves at risk of losing their jobs or any associated privileges they may have at the College.
- 2.3 This policy on Freedom of Speech sets out the rights and obligations inherent within the principles of freedom of speech and expression and academic freedom. The policy shall be construed and applied in the spirit of upholding those principles wherever reasonably practicable within the law.

3 LEGISLATIVE FRAMEWORK

This policy has been developed in accordance with the following legislation and guidance:

- Counter Terrorism Act 2015
- Code of Practice issued under section 43 of the Education (No 2) Act 1986
- Article 10 of the Human Rights Act
- Equality Act 2010

4 SCOPE:

This policy applies to:

- all members of All Nations' staff, volunteers and/or those working on behalf of the College;
- all duly enrolled students of the College (whether full or part-time, residential or non-residential); and;
- all persons invited to speak, perform, or otherwise take part in events to be held on All Nations' premises in accordance with the provisions of this policy.

5 FREEDOM OF SPEECH AND EXPRESSION

- 5.1 All Nations Christian College shall take such steps as are reasonably practicable to ensure that freedom of speech and expression within the law is secured for every person to whom this policy's rights and obligations apply.
- 5.2 Every person to whom this policy's rights and obligations apply shall assist All Nations Christian College in upholding this policy on freedom of speech.
- 5.3 All Nations Christian College will not suppress freedom of thought and expression. However, the College has a duty to ensure, wherever practical, that such thoughts and expressions do not constitute incitement to riot, insurrection, racial hatred, religious hatred, sexual harassment or other activities (beyond the right of peaceful protest) which are likely to cause a breach of the peace or public disorder or otherwise to be unlawful.
- 5.4 The College, as a Registered Charity with religious objectives, maintains the right to adhere to its published Statement of Faith, which College Board of Trustees Members and Teaching Staff commit themselves to uphold. The College also maintains the right to teach and express the Christian faith as expressed in the College's Statement of Faith.
- 5.5 All Nations Christian College shall ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, that the use of College premises is consistent with our charitable objectives and Statement of Faith.
- 5.6 Every person to whom this policy's rights and obligations apply shall refrain from organising or engaging in or otherwise being associated with any conduct (other than by lawful, reasonable and peaceful persuasion) intended to prevent the enjoyment of rights under this policy.
- 5.7 All Nations Christian College shall take such steps as are reasonably practicable (including, where appropriate and following proper investigation, invoking disciplinary measures) to secure that the obligations under this policy are complied with. (See Sanctions below).
- 5.8 All Nations Christian College has the responsibility to maintain good order on its premises. It has the right and the power to regulate and, if necessary, to impose conditions or restrictions upon activities such as teaching, performances, meetings and demonstrations held or proposed to be held on its premises. (See documents referred to in Sanctions below).

- 5.9 All Visiting Lecturers shall be made aware of this policy on their booking form.
- 5.10 It is the responsibility of the Conference Manager to ensure that organisers of conference bookings sign an agreement to ensure any speakers appointed comply with this policy and its procedures.
- 5.11 The Prevent Lead shall maintain a record of all applications for appointing an external speaker on non-academic related topics, including the reasons given for any mitigations imposed or refusals given and documentation related to any appeals which take place. This is in order to be able to comply with the College Safeguarding Policy and reporting requirements to:
- a. The College Board
 - b. The OfS as part of their monitoring of the College's compliance with the Prevent duty.

6 ACADEMIC RESEARCH

PROCEDURES FOR APPROVING EXTERNAL EVENTS AND SPEAKERS

1 INTRODUCTION

All Nations Christian College is committed to balancing its legal responsibilities in terms of allowing freedom of speech and academic freedom with its duties to prevent members of the College from being drawn into terrorism (the Prevent Duty). This procedure therefore upholds the College's Freedom of Speech and Academic Freedom policy and supports the College's Safeguarding policy.

2 SCOPE

- i. The events covered by this procedure include those:
 - Planned to take place on College premises or under the auspices of the College.
 - Where the speaker(s) is(are) making a live appearance or using digital or similar technology to speak to the audience from elsewhere.
 - Organised by any members of the College, whether the event is staff or student led.
 - Organised by a third party on College premises e.g. a conference booking.
- ii. The events covered by this procedure exclude:
 - Visiting lecturers or guest speakers who are engaged to speak as part of the curriculum of the College's academic programmes or on a topic related to the College's academic curriculum. However, such speakers are made aware of and are expected to uphold the College's Freedom of Speech and Academic Freedom policy.

3 COLLEGE BRANDED EVENTS BOOKED THROUGH THE COLLEGE:

3.1 APPLICATION

- i. The Event Organiser must complete the College 'Event Booking' form, in consultation with all relevant College departments.
- ii. Where the speaker(s) is expected to speak on a topic not directly related to the College's academic curriculum, the Event Organiser must provide the following information:
 - Background of the speaker
 - Overview of any organisation that they will be representing
 - Subject matter of talk
 - Assessment of the Prevent Duty risk posed and reason given
- iii. The completed form is to be forwarded to the College General Administrator (CGA) to ensure adequate consultation has taken place and budgetary approval given, before sending to the Senior Leadership Team (SLT) for approval of the proposed event and speaker(s).
- iv. Where a speaker is unknown to the College, the engagement will not be approved until the SLT is satisfied that the intended speaker(s) is a suitable person to speak at College. This may, amongst other things, require the Event Organiser to provide the SLT with further details such as:
 - References for the speaker(s) / from the organisation that they represent
 - A summary of the content to be covered by the speaker(s)
 - An indication of press or media interest likely to be shown in the event.

A member of the SLT or the CGA may conduct independent research into the proposed speaker (e.g. through material readily available via the internet) to inform the SLT decision making process.

3.2 APPROVAL CRITERIA

- i. In considering whether to grant approval for the event, the SLT will need to satisfy themselves that the event:
 - Is consistent with the College's charitable objectives
 - Poses no risk or unacceptable reputational risk to the College
 - Poses no risk (with particular reference to the Prevent Duty) to the safety of the students, the wider College community or the attendees
 - Raises no reservations about the legality of the event or the speaker
 - Raises no reservations about the potential impact on the attendees' conduct.
 - Does not clash with the normal business of the College
 - Does not pose an unreasonable disruption to the community.
- ii. In considering whether to approve the proposed speaker(s), the SLT will additionally consider factors such as whether:
 - the intended speaker(s) has any known links to any proscribed terrorist organisation
 - the subject matter will be at odds with the College's charitable objectives or cause undue distress and/or factions within the College community
 - a controversial subject matter is unlikely to be presented in a balanced manner.

3.3 OUTCOME

Based on the consideration of all the information presented, the SLT will decide either to approve unconditionally, approve conditionally or refuse permission to hold the event/appoint the speaker(s):

- i. Unconditional Approval will be granted if the approval criteria in 3.2 above are met.
- ii. Conditional Approval will be granted if the SLT feel that there is some risk to the College, but that they can:
 - a. Take action to mitigate any perceived risk; or
 - b. Take action to ease tension between groups with strongly held differing opinions; or
 - c. Take all reasonably practical steps to enable the event/speaker(s) to proceed lawfully and safely; or
 - d. Set conditions which must be met by the Event Organiser before the event/speaker can proceed, such as one or more of the following requirements that:
 - the presentation offers a more balanced debate by, for example, the addition of a second speaker offering an opposing viewpoint
 - having an independent chairperson (who would be briefed on their legal responsibilities) to facilitate the event and make sure a range of viewpoints can be heard
 - mandatory attendance by a member of SLT
 - enhanced security arrangements be put in place (the cost to be borne by the organisers of the event)

- the number of attendees be restricted through ticketing measures
 - the event be filmed to deter the use of unlawful speech
 - the use of trigger warnings, i.e. warnings that material may be deemed distressing or difficult, thereby permitting people who may find views offensive or distressing the option of making an informed decision to stay or leave
 - conditions be placed on advertising or promotional material proposed
 - restrictions be placed on when, where and/or how it should be held
 - another measure which is considered to be necessary be put in place to ensure public safety and/or to avoid reputational damage to the College
 - the event be postponed, if necessary, to enable one or more of the above steps to be taken.
- iii. Refusal to grant permission for the event or the speaker(s) because it either doesn't meet the approval criteria or the College feels the risk to the legality or safety of the event cannot be reasonably mitigated.

3.4 ACTION FOLLOWING DECISION

- i. The SLT will communicate their decision to the CGA who will inform the Event Organiser of the outcome.
- ii. The CGA will keep a record of all events (including a record of any necessary mitigations) and event requests (where permission was not granted by the SLT, including the reasons for not granting permission) to support future data requests made by the OfS. This information will be passed to the Prevent Lead on request for monitoring purposes and in order to report to the Board of Trustees and to submit to the OfS.

3.4.1 Approved Events and Speakers

- i. Where approval is given the CGA will:
 - Ensure an Event Administrator is appointed. It is this person's responsibility to ensure that the Chair of the event is reminded of their legal responsibilities in managing the event.
 - Do the necessary right to work checks on the speaker(s)
 - Send the Speaker's Agreement to the speakers who are not speaking on a curriculum related topic, reminding them of their obligations to speak within the law.

The Speakers Agreement sets out the legal responsibilities of the speaker not to 'present extremist or harmful views or behaviour that will compromise the College's commitment to mutual respect and tolerance and to gain their commitment to not illegally express extremist ideology which could draw others into terrorism, express themselves in any way which would constitute incitement to riot, insurrection, racial hatred, religious hatred, discrimination, harassment or in any other way which is illegal'. The speaker(s) must sign the agreement in advance of the delivery of their talk.

This agreement must be signed before the speaker gives their talk and is retained by the College's Prevent Lead.

- On arrival at the College the speaker(s) will be required to present to the CGA (or other trained member of staff acting on their behalf):
 - proof of identification (e.g. valid passport or driving licence) and,

- official identification from the organisation being represented (e.g. identity badge) (if applicable)
 - The identity checks that have been performed will be recorded on the Speaker's agreement.
- ii. The Event Organiser and designated Event Administrator will continue with the process of advertising and organising the event in conjunction with all relevant College departments and in accordance with the College Guidelines on Event Planning.

3.4.2 Conditionally Approved Events and Speakers

Where conditional approval is given, evidence that the conditions have been met must be presented to the College General Administrator who will present it to the SLT for their approval. The SLT will communicate their decision to the College General Administrator (CGA) who will inform the Event Organiser of the outcome. If approved, the procedure will then continue as 3.4.1 above. If refused, the procedure may continue as 3.4.3 below.

3.4.3 Appeal against Refusal

- i. If the Event Organiser feels the SLT did not have sufficient evidence to reach the conclusion they did, or they feel they have been unfair or discriminatory in some way, they may appeal to the SLT for a review of their decision, together with evidence/reasons given.
- ii. SLT will reconsider the Event Planning proposal and communicate the outcome via the CGA.
- iii. If the Event Organiser is still dissatisfied with the outcome and feels they have sufficient grounds, they may appeal to the Board of Trustees via the CGA using the appeal procedure and form in the appeals section of the College Complaints Policy.

3.4.4 Changes after Permission has been given

- i. Where the Event Organiser becomes aware of any of the following changes to their proposed event, they must inform the CGA immediately, before the event can go ahead:
- an external speaker(s) is now to be invited and/or changed; and/or
 - the Event Organiser now has reason to believe that there is a risk that the speaker or event may break the law, breach the College's statutory duties and/or will pose a demonstrable risk to the well-being of students, staff or visitors;
 - the organisers have made a major change regarding the size of the event, facilities required, or timings etc.
- ii. On receipt of the information the CGA in consultation with SLT, will follow the decision-making procedure again and proceed as above.

4 NON-COLLEGE BRANDED EVENTS BOOKED THROUGH THE CONFERENCE DEPARTMENT:

- i. This section applies to all third-party organisations hiring the College for events such as conferences or external training events hiring College premises.
- ii. The conditions for hiring the College by a third party are set out in the College's Conference Lettings policy. All hirers are provided with a copy of the policy and are required to agree to the conditions contained within the policy before confirming the booking.
- iii. All booking requests are managed by the Conference Manager. The Conference Manager will liaise with the Head of Facilities (or a member of the SLT) in responding to booking requests according to the agreed Conference approval criteria.
- iv. Where a potential booking from an individual or organisation wanting to present speakers is received and that individual or organisation is not known by the Conferences Department, the Head of Facilities will liaise with the Conference Manager (acting in the role of College General Administrator) and SLT in following the process as outlined from section 3.1 iv (above) to consider the booking.
- v. As a condition of booking, the event organiser is required to complete a Conference Speakers' Agreement form to declare and accept their responsibility to ensure that all of their speakers will neither illegally express extremist ideology which could draw others into terrorism, nor express themselves in any way which would constitute incitement to riot, insurrection, racial hatred, religious hatred, discrimination, harassment or in any other way which is illegal.
- vi. The completed form, including details of all scheduled speakers and the topics that they will be speaking on, must be returned to the Conference Manager before the start of the conference.
- vii. Any amendments to the scheduled speakers must be noted on the form.
- viii. The completed Conference Speakers' Agreement form will be retained by the Prevent Lead.
- ix. The Conference Manager will keep a record of all events which took place and all event requests (where permission was not granted, including the reasons for not granting permission) to support future data requests made by the OfS. This information will be passed to the Prevent Lead, on request for monitoring purposes and in order to report to the College Board and to submit to the OfS.

TIMESCALES

The College requires a minimum of 10 working days to process an event/speaker request. However it will take up to 30 working days if the request involves complex requirements or is deemed to be high risk and mitigations need to be considered to lower that risk before conditional permission or refusal can be determined.

Reviews require a minimum of 15 working days to process. For time-scales regarding appeals please see the College Complaints Policy.
