Course details

This is a Graduate level course delivered as a 'blended course' with both on-line and residential components. Readings and assignments are completed on-line prior to a 10 day intensive course of participatory classes at All Nations.

The course fosters a holistic interactive approach to engaging with scripture in the healing process for people who suffer from the mental, emotional, and spiritual effects of trauma. It combines Biblical truths with basic mental health principles expressed in ways that can be easily translated into other languages. In particular, this course will emphasize the importance of performing and visual arts in trauma healing.

On successful completion of this course to the standard required, you will be recognised as a Certified Apprentice Facilitator with the Trauma Healing Institute (American Bible Society). You can then go on to complete further training.

How to apply

The Arts and Trauma Healing course is taught at All Nations Christian College in the UK and at GIAL in Dallas, USA. Both have the same start date: 7th January 2019.
