Who is the course for?

This course is designed for those who want to use their skills in mission, community and multicultural contexts. It would benefit church and community workers, teachers, pastors, missionaries, peace builders, arts practitioners and those who have a heart to see transformation in the culture they serve. The training will be focused on giving practical and creative research skills to work alongside local musicians, dancers, actors, artists and storytellers. We will equip you to be an effective facilitator who can draw out the artistic resources in local communities, helping them to respond to their spiritual, social and physical needs, enabling them to move towards the kingdom of God.

What is the programme?

Using the model above, you will be led through the seven stage process of researching and creating local Arts with a community. This flexible process is designed so that you can help others draw on their own artistic resources and plan for a future more like God's kingdom. We will give you a chance to immediately apply what you've learned. There will also be opportunities to learn about further study and networks in the Arts and Mission.

Training content

- Arts with God
- Community Arts
- Arts and the Kingdom of God
