Why Choose Express?

If you are:

- Interested or involved in cross-cultural mission in your local community
- Wanting to learn more about mission and what it means to be missional
- Considering or about to embark on a short-term mission trip
- Involved in supporting mission in your local church or through a mission agency

...then the Express course may be just what you are looking for.

What Is It?

Express is a short, dynamic course that can be accessed by coming to the All Nations campus for 5 days or by studying online for 20 hours over 4 weeks. A flexible online timetable can be arranged. The course aims to lay a foundation for the understanding and practice of cross-cultural mission in any context, home or abroad. The course topics are built around 3 key questions:

- 1 What is mission?
- 2 Why get involved in cross-cultural mission?
- 3 How can I work well with those from other cultural backgrounds?

There are also four cross-cutting themes that run throughout the course to help focus the learning. These are: Biblical Foundations, Cultural Awareness, People Skills and Practical Issues.

What It Isn't...

Express is not a substitute for in-depth training for longer term service, or a course that emphasises academic achievement.

Mission is not just a speciality,
it is EVERYTHING we do.

Who Is It For?

Express is aimed at those who are wanting to explore mission or are preparing for a short-term cross-cultural mission trip, and have little training or experience. Participants will be committed Christians with a desire to learn more about how to live, work and witness cross-culturally.

What Are The Entry Criteria?

There are no academic requirements for Express. Those who are confident in spoken and written English will benefit the most from the course.

When Can I Start?

Residential: The Express course runs as a 5-day residential at All Nations. This course is delivered through interactive workshop style sessions, presentations, case studies, and group activities. This course is available in December and July every year.

Online: The Express course can also be accessed by studying online for 20 hours and is delivered through lessons, discussion forums and a downloadable workbook. Please check our website for the technical requirements for the course and our flexible starting dates. www.allnations.ac.uk.
